Ambassador Lucio Garcia del Solar
Embassy of Argentina
1600 New Hampshire Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20009

Dear Ambassador Garcia del Solar:

The enclosed press release was just issued by the Anti-Defamation League, publicizing the release of prisoners and news of the disappeared in Argentina.

The public disclosure, late last year, of the identity of 23 bodies found in unmarked graves and 53 others whose families had been informed previously of their deaths was significant and, at that time, a promising development. We are, however, disappointed that your government has not made known the identities of the other individuals whose bodies are in the unmarked graves. What has been done merely skims the surface of the problem. We urge your government to act promptly to relieve the agony of their loved ones.

We appreciate your assistance in expediting the release of several prisoners and any additional assistance which you can render in this regard. Your intervention on behalf of the following individuals would be most welcome:

Subovsky Jarupken, Lidia Ines
Prilleltensky de Goober, Miriam Haydee
Bohoslavsky, Pablo
Krilyzanosky, Oscar E.
Pra, Ruben Sergio
Erlich, Jose
Koldorf, Ana Esther
Becher de Molciusky, Blanca Frida
Teplisky de Streger, Liliana Beatriz
Menajovsky, Mirta Emilce Sgro
Menajovsky, Eduardo Adrian

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi Morton M. Rosenthal
Director
Department of Latin American Affairs
